

CHICAGO PARENT

Go Big with Your Own Private Resort

Bunker Hill Farms is a secluded 450-acre hideaway 60 miles northwest of Chicago in McHenry County that you, your family and friends can rent out for your own private retreat. Not only is it an incredible hidden gem, but all of the proceeds benefit a local charity. Choose from upscale cottage or lodge accommodations that sleep up to 24 and relax while the friendly staff customizes your stay. The grounds are vast, hilly and gorgeous. Kids will feel boundless freedom exploring, swimming in the pond, playing on the sand beach or climbing the inflatable water park.

Golf an impeccable 18-hole private course, feel the thrill of riding ATVs to the highest overlook in McHenry County, then indulge in massages at the Silo Spa, where you can view botanic gardens through the glass below your massage table.

Kayak, paddleboard or chill out on a pontoon boat. Horseback riding and skeet shooting are options, too. An on-site chef will whip up meals that please your particular palates. The best parts are the quiet exclusivity and full-service staff. This will be a nearby getaway your group will always remember. bhfarms.com